WELCOME TABLE

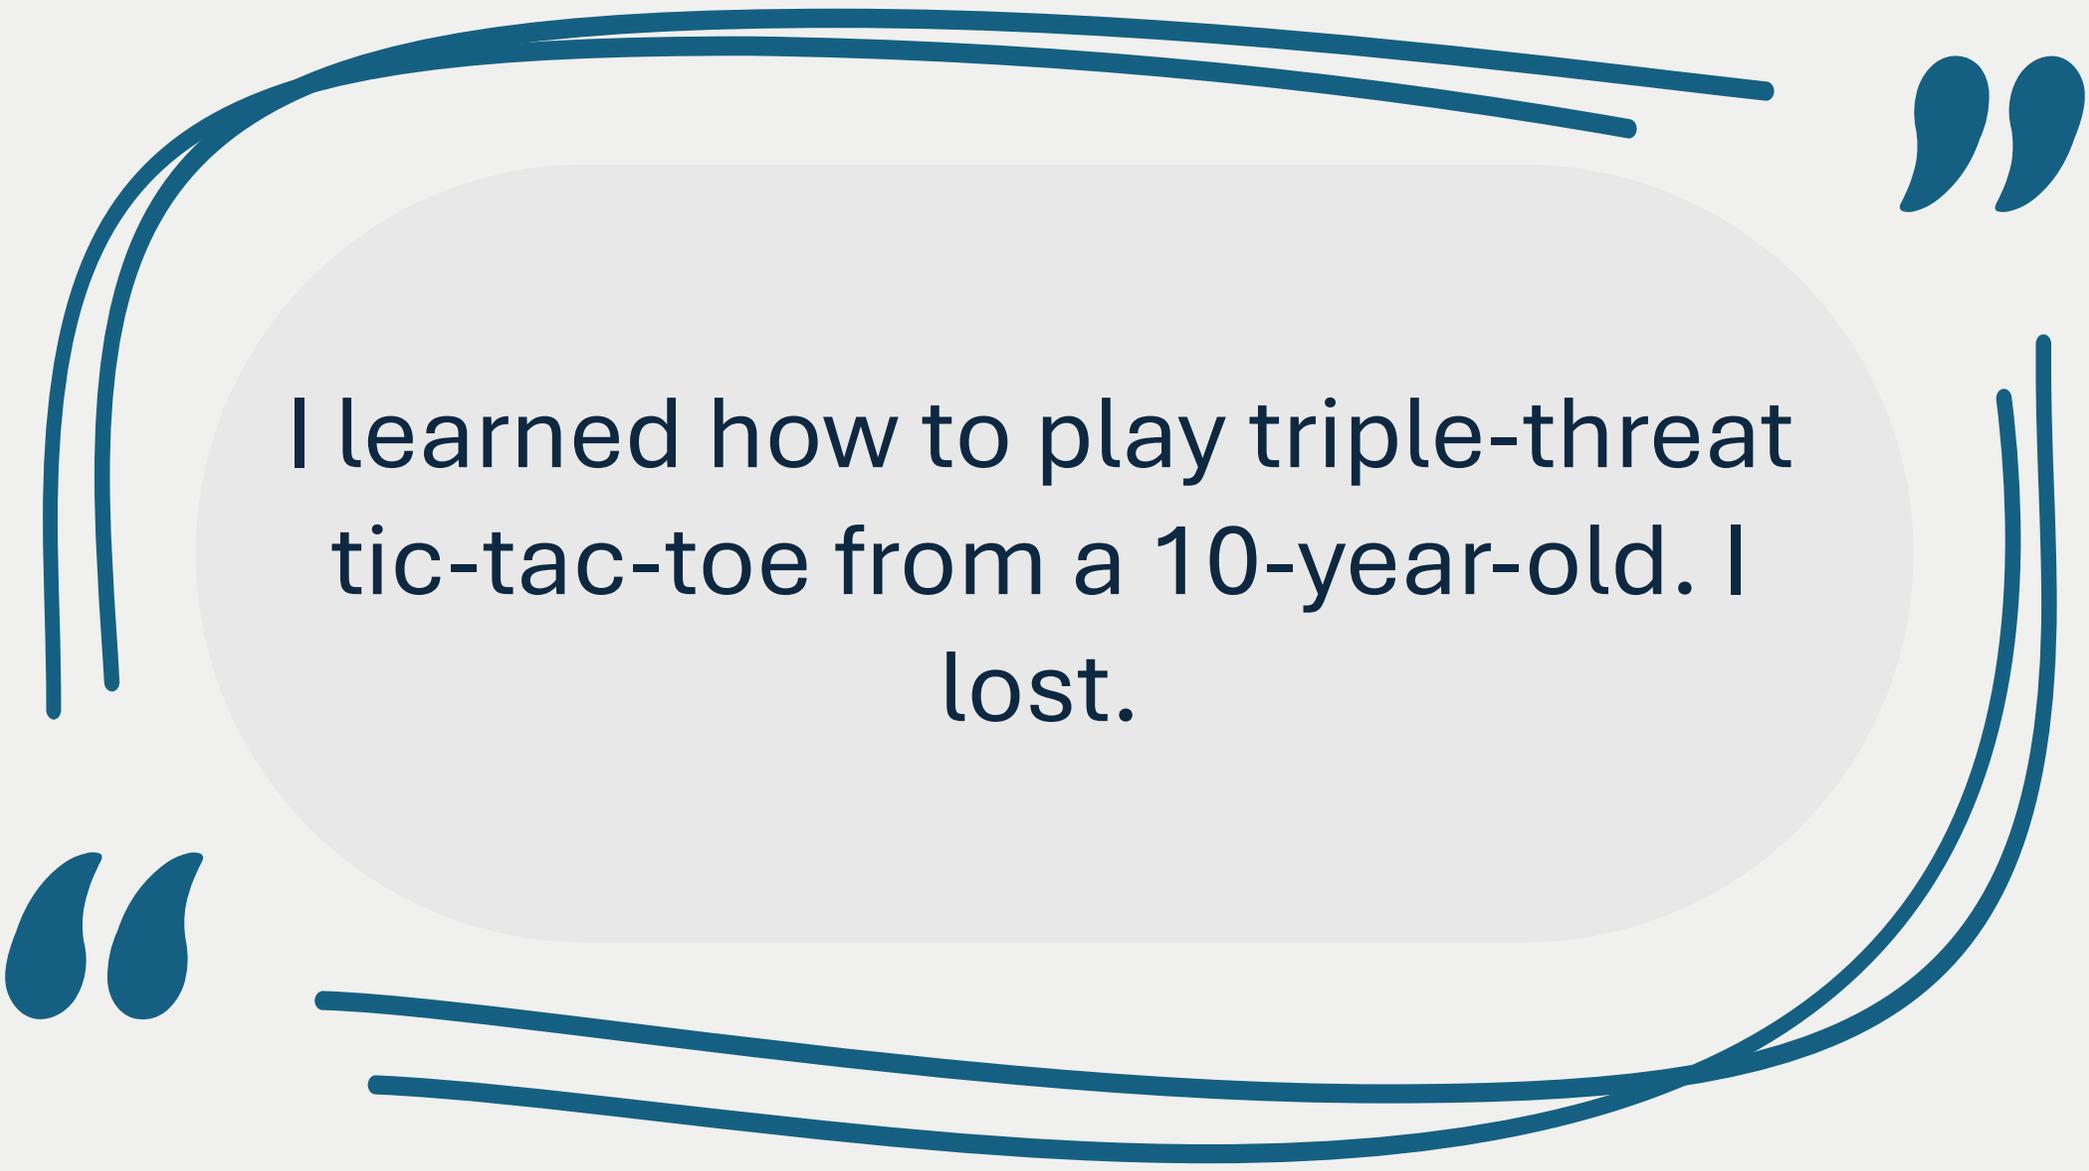

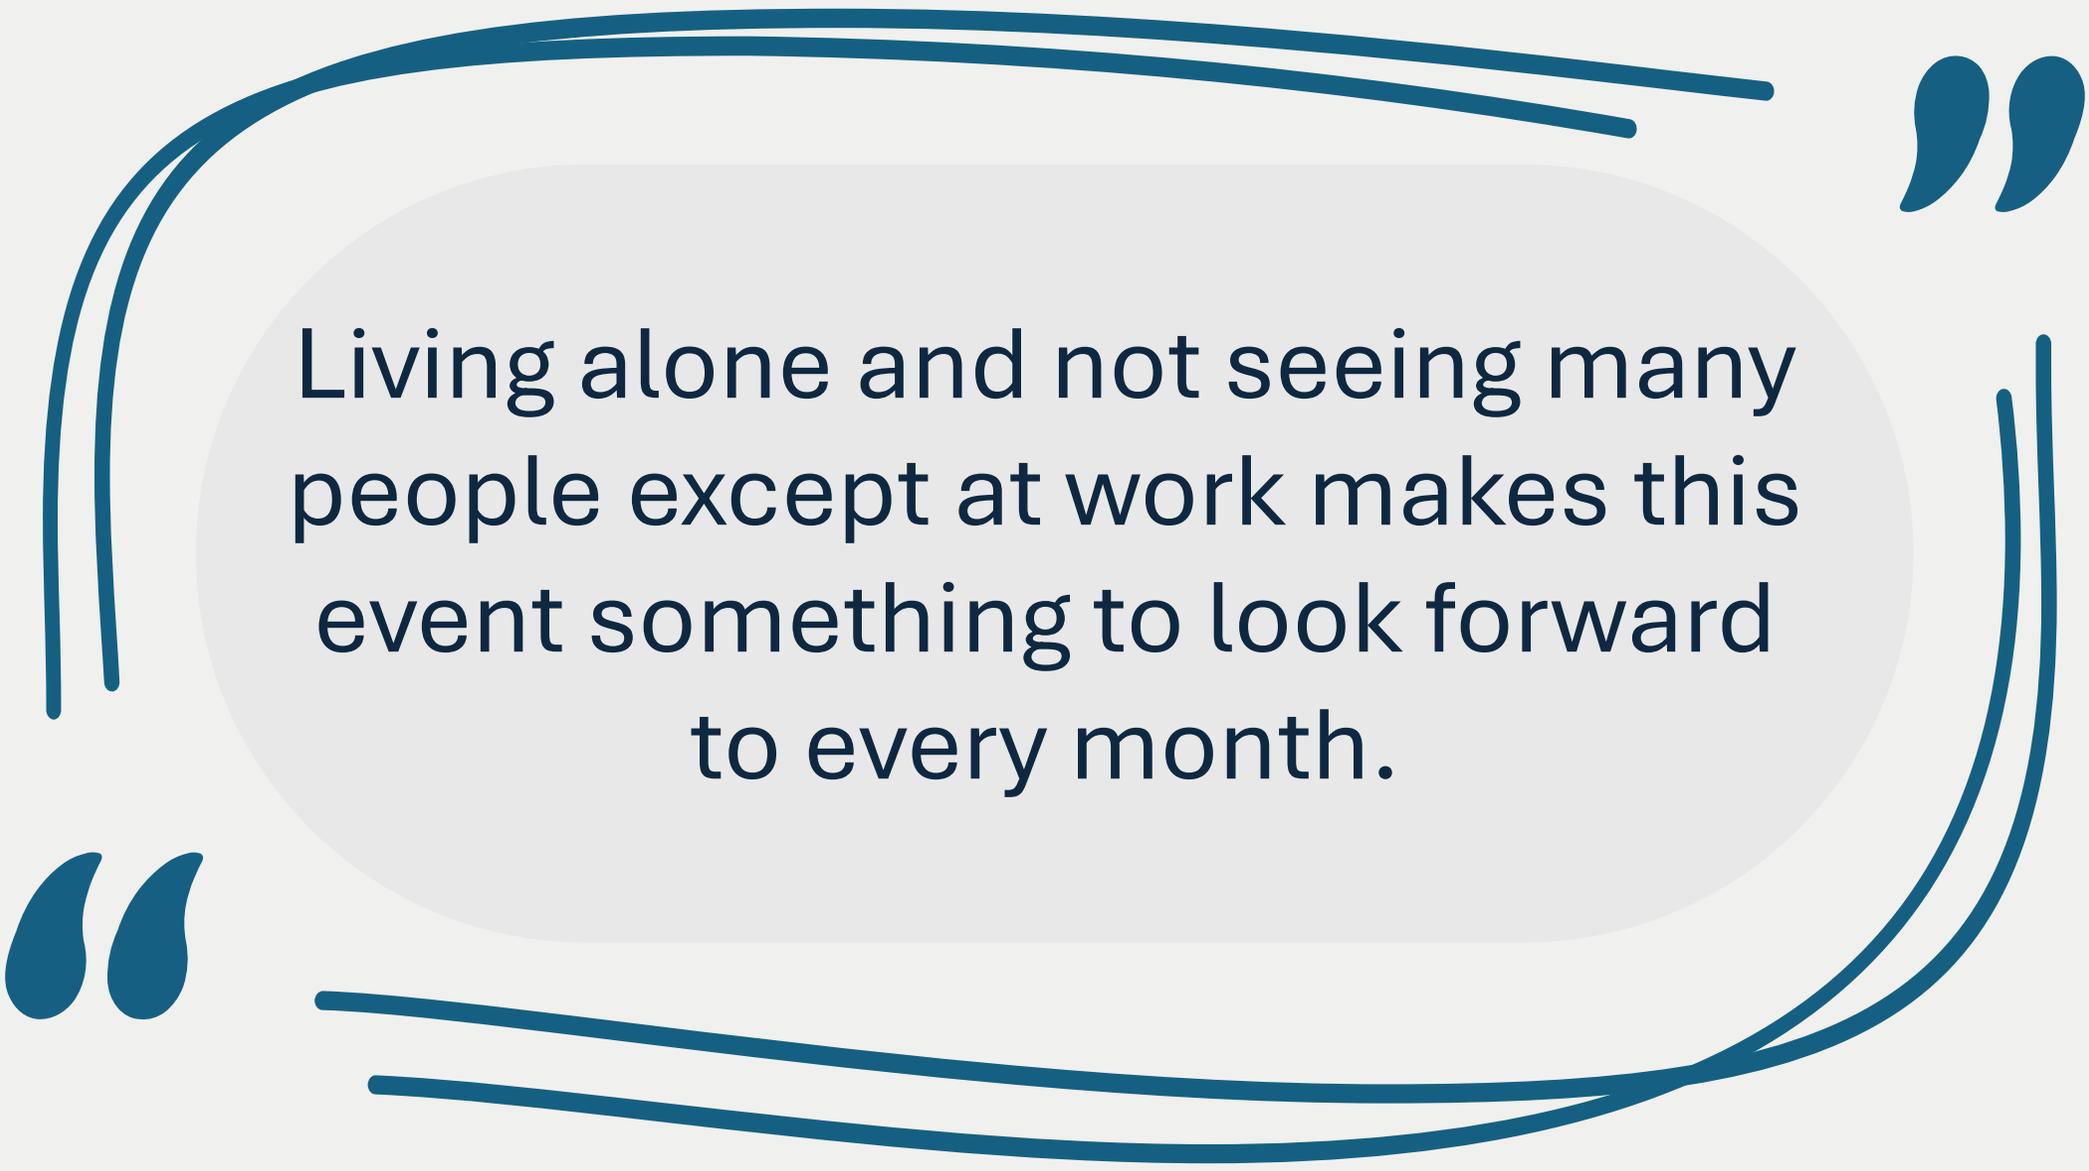

I'm new to town and this is my first time here. Thank you for nourishing the community with both food and the opportunity to meet new people.

As a graduate student,
sometimes it's hard to afford three meals a day. This dinner offered not just delicious food
but wonderful conversations.

I learned how to play triple-threat tic-tac-toe from a 10-year-old. I lost.

Living alone and not seeing many people except at work makes this event something to look forward to every month.

I ♥ ice cream.

- Cormac, age 7

I've lived here 20 years and never tried lentils before tonight. Truly an amazing experience.

I'm an international student from Bangladesh and I've never felt more welcomed and included in the Moscow community.
